

21st Century CSLA & Educator Workforce Investment Grant Updates

As of August 29, 2019

21st Century California School Leadership Academy (21 CSLA)

The 2019–20 California State Budget authorized $13.8 million in ongoing federal funds to establish the 21st Century CSLA. California Education Code Section 44690(c)(1) directs the Department of Education and CCEE to establish a process to organize and offer professional learning opportunities and to select providers of high-quality professional learning for administrators and other school leaders. These providers will apply for grants in a manner that ensures the availability of professional learning through the 21st Century CSLA, free of charge, to local educational agencies that receive federal Title II funds on a statewide basis.

An anticipated schedule of activities:

- September 16, 9-10am: Stakeholder input webinar
- September 19, 3-4pm: Stakeholder input webinar
- September 20, 3-4pm: Stakeholder input webinar
- November: RFA available
- January 2020: Proposals due
- Spring 2020: Program implementation begins
