

ETHNIC STUDIES

THREE-DAY FALL INSTITUTE

Schools and districts across Los Angeles County are invited to bring teams of teachers, administrators, community members, and partners to acquire information, resources, and strategies to meet the AB101 Ethnic Studies high school graduation requirement for implementing an ethnic studies course before the 2025-26 school year.

September 8, 28, and 29, 2022 | 8:30 am - 3:30 pm

Almanson Court | 700 S. Almanson St. | Alhambra, CA

The Institute will feature

- Inspiring opening session with Dolores Huerta, President and Founder, Dolores Huerta Foundation
- An Overview of AB101 Ethnic Studies High School Graduation Requirement
- The Ethnic Studies Model Curriculum adopted by the State Board of Education
- The NEW Ethnic Studies Adoption Toolkit
- How to Create a Reflective Classroom Environment from Facing History and Ourselves
- Implicit Bias Training with Dr. Bryant T. Marks, Sr
- How to create a culturally proficient learning environment with Dr. Peter Flores and Dr. Delia Estrada
- Teaching with an Ethnic Studies Philosophy in Mind from California State University, Los Angeles scholars
- Table talks with "Bright Spot" school districts that have implemented ethnic studies courses in a variety of ways
 - Stand-alone course
 - Integrated course
 - Thematic approach
 - Dual enrollment
- Giving Voice, Choice, and Agency to Students through Civic Engagement
- Team Planning Time

Dolores Huerta
President and Founder,
Dolores Huerta
Foundation

Rev. Dr. Bryant T. Marks, Sr.
Founder & Chief Equity Officer, The National Training Institute on Race & Equity; Professor of Psychology, Morehouse College; Former White House Advisor

Dr. Peter Flores
Director of Equity, Center for Leadership, Equity, and Research and Senior Associate for the Center for Culturally Proficient Educational Practice

Delia Estrada, Ph.D.
Administrative Coordinator, Human Resources Division: Induction and Credentialing
Los Angeles Unified School District

LACOE units supporting this work:

Center for History-Social Science Education

Equity, Access and Acceleration

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

Los Angeles County
Office of Education

Registration:

$325.00 includes 3 days of professional development, materials, continental breakfast and lunch.

Register today at

<http://lacoe.k12oms.org/1537-218471>

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: September 16, 2022

For more information, please contact

Michelle Herczog, Coordinator III, History-Social Science, Los Angeles County Office of Education at Herczog_Michelle@lacoe.edu

LACOE does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of age, actual or perceived race, actual or perceived gender, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, or sexual orientation. LACOE complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act to ensure equal access to all qualified individuals with a disability. If you are disabled and require assistance in accessing this event, please contact Maribel Garcia, Secretary, History-Social Science Unit at LACOE at Garcia_Maribel@lacoe.edu.